ESTHER CANTATA NEVER GROWS OLD

Although the Cantata of Esther is more or less of an old story to those of the passing generation, it is so romantic in theme and so tuneful that it is well worth resurrecting from the "dust of ages."

It also presents a bit of Bible history in a very attractive way. The stage setting and costumes for the coming presentation in Davies Memorial hall on April 12 have been copied from famous paintings, and will satisfy the eye.

The Bijou management is to have charge of scenery and lighting, which promises to be an innovation in the way of parish hall affairs. The raised seats will remedy the old discomfort of peering around or over the heads of those sitting in front. An orchestra of five pieces will add to the musical beauty of the Cantata.

Miss Esther Inc., who designed the characteristic posters for the Chinese play given last year by this same group of young people, has painted some to advertise Esther—these are on display down town.

Rev. Kong Yin Tet has also done two beautiful posters.

The play is to be sung in English. Although all the participants are Chinese, their clear enunciation has been very much complimented in their former efforts.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL

Tomorrow, Palm Sunday, there will be the usual impressive services of the day.

At 7:30 p. m. a large augmented choir will sing Stainer's Crucifixion. Nothing more need be said to those who have heard it. To those not familiar with this sacred music it may be said that it consists of choruses, solos and hymns, all bringing before the people the story of the Passion yet to the wonderfully appropriate music by the late Sir John Stainer, who was organist of St. Paul's cathedral, London.—Adv.

TEUTON RAIDERS PLAY HAVOC WITH SOUTH ATLANTIC TRADE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
NEW YORK, N. Y., March 31.—Another German raider, is abroad in the Atlantic, operating off the island of Trinidad and into the North Atlantic, having been sighted in the vicinity of the main travel lane between this port and England. The raider has already captured and sunk a number of ships in Southern waters.

Yesterday the American liner Mongolia, formerly of the Pacific Mail, was reported in a "dateless" despatch to have arrived at an unnamed port with news that she had sighted the raider three days out of port. The description given by the Mongolia crew of the armed vessel indicates that she is the converted raider St. Theodore. This is a British steamer of 3175 tons, captured by a former German raider on January 21 and armed, being manned by a German crew and despatched against Allied commerce.

The possibility that there may be two or more raiders out is increased by reports from an unnamed South American port, which state that the French bark Calypso, arrived there yesterday with two hundred survivors of the crew of a number of captured ships, German and sailing vessels, which had been sunk by an unidentified raider off the island of Trinidad. The two hundred men brought to port by the Calypso represent only a portion of the various crews, many having been drowned when their ships went down under the shells of the raider. The raider is disguised as a Swedish schooner. She flies the Swedish colors and approaches her victims under the guise of a peaceful merchantman. She has auxiliary gasoline power.

HOLLWEG HOLDS OUT OLIVE BRANCH TO NEW RUSSIA

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
AMSTERDAM, Holland, March 31.—Discussing the Russian revolution in the retching yesterday, the imperial chancellor, is quoted as saying: "So far as I am able to see, the Russian emperor has fallen a victim to his own tragic guilt. The Russian republicans need never fear that we will meddle in the affairs of the Russian people or ever attempt to interfere in their affairs. "We, as Germans, wish only again to offer to the new government of Russia the chance for peace, based on terms that are mutually honorable."

GERARD URGES UNITED STATES GET READY FOR HARD FIGHT

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
NEW YORK, N. Y., March 31.—James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the members of the Aero Club of America, last night. The former ambassador gave some details of the needs of a modern war, as he had seen them developed in Europe. He urged his hearers to exert their utmost power to impress upon the people of the United States the fact that they are about to embark upon a serious struggle for which serious efforts towards preparedness must be made or defeat will come to the United States.

He expressed his strong convictions that those of German blood now resident in the United States will prove to be loyal sons of the land of their adoption. Discussing the need of preparedness, he said: "There is only one thing—universal military service or universal training. When I came back to the country it was a positive shock to me to find that in the two and a half years in which the world has been on fire we have done nothing to prepare for even a reasonable means of defense. If we had a million men in arms today we would not be near the edge of war. We are now about to enter the war, but I believe that in our hour of trial we may rely upon the loyalty of our citizens of German descent."
